

Give My Regards To Broadway

Singing and gracefully dancing his way into your hearts, tenor solosit Kelly Moore, founder of Music For Mankind®, performs his show Give My Regards To Broadway of popular Broadway and American favorites with piano accompaniment.

Included in the performance are show-stoppers “Somewhere” from West Side Story, “Younger Than Springtime” from South Pacific, “On The Street Where You Live”, from My Fair Lady, “Try To Remember” from the longest-running musical off-Broadway, The Fantasticks, “Come To Me, Bend To Me” from Brigadoon, and of course “Give My Regards To Broadway” from the ever-popular George M. And no show is complete without the favorite sing-a-long “Edelweiss” from The Sound of Music.

Including his talents as composer, musician, filmmaker and humanitarian, Mr. Moore is an accomplished vocalist and dancer who has performed extensively in the US and also performed in Europe. His latest CD “Silently Hoping” went to #37 in the US and played on radio in ten countries. Mr. Moore founded Music For Mankind® in 2007 as a way to offer his help in alleviating chronic global hunger.

Music For Mankind®, sponsored by Luxbrush Painting Company, Maple Street School, The Image Loft, Manchester Carpet, and Graph-X, Inc., is a series of benefit concerts with proceeds contributed to the United Nations World Food Program, Feeding America, and other humanitarian organizations for hunger and disaster relief locally and globally. Contributions from Music For Mankind® concerts, food drives and other humanitarian initiatives have fed over 40,000 people since it's inception in 2007. For more information about Music For Mankind® visit www.musicformankind.net or call 802-362-3806.